

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

AVIATORS NEEDED

Lieutenant-Colonel Bingham, of the Signal Corps, and recruiting officers in Chicago inform us that many more college men are desired for the aviation school. Students can file applications with the War Department direct or with the President of the Examining Board nearby. In the Middle West there are examining stations at Chicago, Minneapolis, Denver, St. Louis, Detroit, Omaha, Fairfield, Cleveland and Indianapolis. Other stations are to be established soon.

---

Dr. John S. Nollen, of Lake Forest College, President of the Association of American Colleges, is leaving his work abruptly to take up Y. M. C. A. service in France. Business connected with the Association has been turned over to Vice-President Hill M. Bell.

---

Dr. Kelly, of the Council Headquarters, has recently spoken on phases of Christian education at the national conferences of the Congregational Churches in Columbus, of the Friends at Richmond, Indiana, and the Disciples of Christ at Kansas City. He also addressed the annual meeting of the College Association of Kansas at Topeka.